—Water lilies will soon be ripe.

—Prof. Woodruff was in Bristol this week visiting the schools.

—Hugh B. Campbell, Recorder of Deeds, was in town yesterday.

—Services at the Methodist Church will begin on Sunday evenings, during the summer, at eight o'clock.

—Dr. Potts will soon have an opportunity of publicly discussing Third Ward affairs, in a Third Ward public hall.

—The Keystone forge is demolished and the place that once knew it will shortly make the acquaintance of the paper mill.

—The Hulmeville Creamery has made some important improvements in its machinery. Charles DeLong has superseded W. D. Scott as superintendent.

—The Rev. Dr. Macloskie, of the College of New Jersey, at Princeton, will preach in the Presbyterian Church morning and evening, on next Sunday.

—The tide of prosperity is in full flow. We learn from the Newtown Enterprise that Mr. Smith has built a new kitchen to his house in Buckmanville. Let it be so recorded.

—William Milligan was, on Monday evening, placed under $500 bail, by Squire Bailey, for appearance at court, upon a charge of assaulting the wife of Joseph Horn.

—The Bristol Fife and Drum corps paraded on Saturday evening and let people know they were still alive by the noise of their new drums. They expect to go to Burlington on Decoration day.

—A base ball match between the Keystone and Hit-or-Miss clubs, of Bristol, took place last Saturday. The Hit-or-Miss boys missed being victors by 13 runs the score being 32 to 19 in favor of the Keystone club.

—The County Treasurer will be in Bristol to receive the county tax, on Friday, June 3d, at the public house of George S. Silbert, 1st Ward; on Saturday, June 4th, at the office of Joseph S. Peirce, 2d Ward; Tuesday, June 7th, at the public house of J. W. Closson, 3d Ward.

—Strawberries have not yet made their appearance in this neighborhood, but they will soon be here, and, in anticipation of this, the Methodist Sunday School is making preparations for a strawberry festival to be held on June 9 and 10.

—List of Letters remaining in Bristol Post office, Wednesday evening, May 18: Elias Augustus, Myra Bailey, Lewis Johnson, Ben. Kelly, Margaret E. Morrison, Andrew J. Menger, Wm. Thomas, Jesse Wilcott, Wm. Woodington, Pond street Postals: Miss E. Anderson, Mrs. Francis Ford, Tillie Neal. Held for post: Geo. Stinson & Co., Miss Mary E. Hally.

—Negotiations have been completed, between a committee of the lodge of Red Men and the School Board, for the transfer of the old turnpike school house to the Red Men, if the lodge ratifies the agreement at their next meeting, as it is expected they will do. The price accepted by the School Board is $2,000. It is not a very large sum but the Board think it better to accept that than keep the building on their hands. The Red Men, if the purchase is consummated, will fit up the upper story as a lodge room and make a public hall on the first floor.

—A horse was very much surprised, and worse shaken up, yesterday, by being backed, with a cart attached, into the cellar ten feet deep, which had been dug for the ice-house of James Holt, on Bath street. The scene was a lively one for a short time, and the driver was at his wit's ends, being divided in his mind whether to get down into the cellar and lift the horse and cart bodily, or effect a rescue by digging a tunnel through to China. The animal was finally extricated from its unnatural position by means of ropes, and strange to say was not injured, beyond a few scratches upon its legs.

—The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin of last Saturday contained a sketch of Bristol, made up of interesting historical reminiscences, the recollections of William Kinsey, Esq., important facts concerning our industrial works, and a poetic description of the old Town Hall. We never before knew what a fine piece of architecture it was, although always considering it unique. The fishy odor about the place doubtless inspired the poetic fancies of the Bulletin reporter. Fish and poetry are intimately connected. Over two hundred copies of Saturday's Bulletin were sold in Bristol.

—The Bucks County Temperance Alliance has published in pamphlet form the names of those who have signed applications for license to sell intoxicating liquors in Bucks county, during the present year. Upon its perusal we find that there are nine licensed liquor selling establishments in Bristol, and that in the aggregate 108 signatures are attached to the applications, all the signers being supposed to be "respectable" citizens. But although there are 108 signatures there are not that many signers as some of the names appear on three or more applications. The pamphlet is a good sort of document to keep on hand for reference. A copy may be obtained upon application to Elizabeth Lloyd, Buckingham, or F. Musselman, Quakertown.

CONVENT MEETING.

An adjourned meeting of Burgess and Council was held last Monday evening. The roll was called and minutes read.

The Street Committee were authorized to make a contract with the Pennsylvania Globe Gas Light Company for the burning of the oil lamps all night, at an additional price of $2 per lamp per annum.

The same committee was instructed to notify all owners of premises having imperfect side walks to put the same in repair forthwith.

They were also instructed to take means to find out the best plan or plans of improving the streets, and report at the next meeting of Council.

The following bills were presented, read and passed:

Time in Brooks, $10.00
B. L. Hedgesworth, $8.00
B. L. Hedgesworth, $8.00
Total, $26.00

The committee on Public Property reported that they had an offer for the lease of Franklin street wharf of $5 a year for a term of three years.

The Council then went into committee of the whole on the revision of borough ordinances.

Decoration Day.
The comrades of Post 73, G. A. R., met at the Post room on Monday, 30th inst, at 6:30 A. M., to proceed to White Hall cemetery to perform the ceremonies incident to Decoration Day. They will then proceed to Tullytown, accompanied by the Washington Cornet Band, where appropriate exercises will be held in the church-yard. Details from the Post will also conduct services at Hulmeville and Morrisville cemeteries. Upon their return to Bristol, the Post will assemble at their room at 1 o'clock, P. M., where they will again be joined by the band, and at 2 P. M. will proceed to decorate the graves of their deceased comrades in our own Bristol burial grounds, assisted by the children of our Sabbath Schools, who will be arranged in two ranks, facing inwards on the main avenue of the cemetery. When the Post has nearly arrived at the entrance, it will be formed in two ranks, and then pass between the lines of children, the comrades receiving flowers from the children, who at the same time should sing an appropriate hymn. The beautiful and impressive ceremonies by the veterans render an increasing interest to each return of Decoration day, and the general observance of the occasion in every city and village church-yard shows that the Nation will not soon forget the memory of its heroic dead. All honorably discharged soldiers and sailors who served during the Rebellion are cordially invited by the Post to meet at their rooms at the appointed time, and aid in the observance of the day.

In and Around the County.
Northampton county is to have an additional law judge.

County Treasurer Feaster will start on his tour of the county on May 26.

The examinations for teachers, by Prof. Woodruff, will begin about the 7th of June and conclude before the 4th of July.

Bonaparte Park, Bordentown, has not, as was stated, been purchased by the Grand Army of the Republic, department of New Jersey.

The graveyards of our borough are being rapidly filled up. Necessity will soon compel movements to be taken for the creation of a cemetery.

The Chapman Slate Company, in Northampton county, recently shipped three carloads of slate to Pueblo, Colorado, to be used for roofing. The freight upon it amounted to $1100.

Solebury and Plumstead, the principal peach growing districts of Bucks county, are mourning, as other sections of the country are, because the peach buds have been killed by the severe winter.

The plasterers and masons of Doylestown are trying to form a combination to secure higher wages. They complain that $1.25 and $1.50 per day is too low and propose to demand $2 per day.

Already fraud is charged in the management of some of the numerous creameries in the county, and it is proposed that superintendents be required to give bonds to hold them to strict accountability.

The proposed new bridge across the Neshaminy will soon be a reality, for which those who will be benefited by it, are greatly indebted to the Delaware Valley Advance for its untiring advocacy of the project.

Bucks county is fortunate in possessing two superintendents of public schools, Woodruff, just re-elected, and George W. Weiss, the newly elected superintendent of the Schuylkill county schools, who is a native of Bucks county.

The Democrat has not yet got used to the society of its late and present political ally, Col. Forney, or it would not allude to him as Thomas W. when speaking of him as lecturing before the Young Men's Democratic Association, of Trenton.

A writer of much spiritual discernment makes the startling announcement that Angels of Death are hovering over our town. It must have been stray "donkey-does," which the hysterical person saw flying around. These birds are often mistaken for Angels.

Jacob C. Davis, of Doylestown, son of Gen. W. W. H. Davis, has been elected a member of the Loyal Legion of the United States, an organization of veterans of the war, and their eldest sons. We judge from this that Gen. Davis is considered a veteran, which he undoubtedly is in war, politics and newspaperdom.

One day recently Squire John Robinson, of Horsham, aged 78 years, who has been a school director for a quarter of a century, arose at four o'clock and walked six miles to a railroad station, where he took the train and rode to Norristown in order that he might attend the school directors' convention and help elect his friend, Prof. Hoffecker, to the superintendency.

THE NEWTOWN ENTERPRISE AND DOYLESTOWN DEMOCRAT.

The Newtown Enterprise and Doylestown Democrat assert that the Bristol Times has ceased to exist. The former says it was a kind of bogus paper intended as a medium for advertising quack medicines, and the latter, accepting the words of the Enterprise as its own, says it (the Times) is supposed to have been hoisted by its own petard. Dr. Rose dislikes to doubt the accuracy of either paper and has almost been led to believe their statements concerning his metropolitan journal true, but nevertheless he utters warlike language against the papers, as it is entirely safe to do, seeing that the editors live so far away.

Rev. William A. Patton, the recently installed pastor of the Doylestown Presbyterian church, has begun his labors by an attack upon Col. Ingersoll, whom he denominates a wolf in sheep's clothing. Col. Ingersoll is a genial sort of wolf, and comparatively harmless, because, if he is a wolf, he goes about in wolves' clothing. If he appears in sheep's clothing the reverend gentleman may be assured he is a genuine sheep, for whatever sins he may have to answer for the brilliant but biased skeptic will not have to plead guilty to the sin of hypocrisy.

The Enterprise says that all the tavern license applications got through the court swimmingly at the recent term. Nobody wasted time, shoe-leather and talk in getting signatures to remonstrances. Some tried it last year, and their success was not conducive of renewed effort. But one objection was made, and that to an applicant in Tinicum, and that on the ridiculous pretext that the applicant was not a man of good moral character.

Mr. Benjamin Patterson prints his valdictory in this week's Langhorne Beacon, and J. Prall Rue, editor and proprietor will hereafter conduct the paper. Mr. Patterson has accepted a position on the Salon Standard.

Experts prophesy that strawberries will be plenty this season.

The reader must be hard to please indeed who in the diversified contents of the North American Review for June should find nothing to win his attention. First we have an article by the Hon. Hugh McCulloch on "Our Future Fiscal Policy," treating of the problems of refunding, the remonetization of silver, and the restoration of the United States to their just rank among the maritime nations of the world. George B. Loring writes of "The Patrician Element in American Society," but the reader need apprehend no glorification of artificial rank, for in the author's estimation the patrician element here is simply the strongest popular element—that portion of the people, whatever their lineage, who are engaged in developing the mental, moral and material wealth of the Republic. Dorman B. Eaton makes a spirited defense of civil service reform. Prof. W. G. Sumner states very clearly the argument for free ships; Frederick Douglass writes of "The Color Line;" Desire Charney, of "The Ruins of Central America;" Dr. Austin Flint discusses the benefits of vaccination; J. M. Mason asserts the lawful power of the government to regulate railway charges; and finally, Prof. E. S. Morse sets forth the evidences of the existence of man upon this continent in prehistoric times.

Yesterday, the question was whether Senator Robertson should be confirmed. To-day the question is whether the Republicans of this State propose to make war upon the Republican party of other States by reelecting Senator Conkling. Mr. Platt does not count. With Mr. Conkling at his side, it has been the delight of Senator Platt to play the humble dependent and poor relation. He is in no danger of reelection unless Senator Conkling should be elected, for the friends of that Senator know that they could not trust Mr. Platt alone, and nobody else has any disposition to trust or support him. The question is whether Roscoe Conkling can be elected to the Senate, openly avowing his intention, if elected, to make war upon the Administration and the Republican party. Though he were to make very different professions, there would be no doubt as to his intention. Unhappily, his vindictive spirit is too well known, to other Senators and to the Republicans of New York. A certificate of reelection he would regard as a privateer's commission to ravage and destroy at pleasure, until the Republican party should see fit to submit to his will. The question is whether the Republicans of New York wish to issue letters of marque to this political privateer, to make whatever mischief he can for the next four years. —New York Tribune.

—The rights of women have been under revision in the supreme court of California. The new constitution declares that "no person shall, on account of sex, be disqualified from entering upon or pursuing any lawful business, vocation or profession." The authorities of San Francisco passed an ordinance last year prohibiting the employment of female waiters in drinking saloons, dance halls and like resorts, and making it unlawful for a woman or girl to be in any such place after midnight. The court decided that the ordinance was unconstitutional, and that all pursuits, vocations or professions permitted by law, were equally open to men and women. The chief justice, and two others of the seven judges, dissented, holding that females might be excluded from certain pursuits on grounds of public decency and morality. But they were in a minority, so that the principle of the equality of the sexes will not be imperilled by their dissent.

—The universal popular opposition to the course of Messrs. Conkling and Platt has had an immediate and marked effect at Albany. A paper in circulation there, pledging the signers not to vote for these two men under any circumstances, has received forty signatures, it is said, and more are coming. If these men hold fast, as they have every reason to do, Mr. Conkling cannot possibly be reelected by this Legislature, unless he obtains the aid of the Democratic members. The quality of a "vindication" secured in that fashion need hardly be suggested.

IT IS ANNOUNCED, ON WHAT MEASURES ARE already good authority, that measures are already being adopted looking to the defeat of three-election of Senator Cameron, the first open movement of which is to be in a contest for Chairman of the State Republican Executive Committee. The candidate friendly to Mr. Cameron is said to be John M. Pomeroy, of Franklin county; and his opponent Charles S. Wolfe, of Union county, both members of the State House of Representatives.

At the close of business on Monday Secretary Windom had received notice from the holders of $85,184.050 in five per cents of their desire to have their bonds continued at 34 per cent. The Secretary thinks the $250,000,000 of registered bonds—the amount to which the option of continuance is limited—"will all be in before next week."

Conkling's "wobblers" are in the minority in the New York Legislature. There are only fifty-seven of them, and Conkling's friends do not claim over twelve State Senators, a vote of sixty-nine all told. Eighty-one votes is necessary to re-elect the Senator.

Chicago Times, (Ind. Dem.): The Stalwarts may find what consolation they can in the undoubted fact that all this wouldn't have happened if Grant had been the man. The manifest trouble is that Grant isn't the man, and that there's now no help for it.

Judge Robertson is a man above the medium size, with a full head of grayish white hair and a large tuft of goatee upon his chin. He has bluish eyes, regular features, and is a man of considerable, attentive, respectful and remarkable power of thinking on his feet.

It is charged that Conkling resigned his short term in order to obtain Platt's long term, so that he could thus make war upon the Administration through to the end. It may turn out that Conkling will be short on even the short term.

Secretary Lincoln will shortly erect a marble monument on the grave of his grandfather, Thomas Lincoln, in Coles County, Ill.

The Philadelphia Sunday Mirror wants the police to employ their leisure moments in casting banana skins from the sidewalk into the street.

Senator Mahone has changed the color of his stockings; they are blue now, instead of red.

There are nine hundred and one animals in the Zoo, and it is estimated they are worth $49,254.

James A. Garfield, it is understood, is still President of these United States.

Two shocks of earthquake were felt at Contoocook, N. H., yesterday.

Henry Ward Beecher has gone West on a three weeks' lecturing tour.

Gen. Butler is to gather in $200,000 a year from his law practice.

Dr. D. Rawls, of Connorsville, Ind., pronounces Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup as an infallible remedy in the community. He says it finds a ready sale at all times. It is the people's remedy. Price 25 cents.

E. W. Brant, Druggist, Elizabeth, N. J.: I could scarcely speak above a whisper, and it was almost impossible to breathe through my nostrils. Using Ely's Cream Balm a short time I was entirely relieved. My head has not been so clear, nor my voice so strong in years. I have awarded off several colds since. I recommend this admirable remedy to all who are afflicted with catarrh or colds in the head. J. O. Tichenor, Dealer in Boots and Shoes, June 13, 1879.—See advertisement.

Dr. Ely's Diamond Catarrh Remedy, I have found relief and benefit, and I shall continue to use it. I previously used the Remedy I was troubled with partial deafness, but since using your Catarrh Remedy, I have been relieved in the least about hearing. Respectfully, HORACE WATERS, 826 Broadway, New York.

THE
Capitol of American Clothing
Oak Hall,
S. E. Cor. Sixth and Market Streets, Philadelphia.
THE
1861—20th Spring—1881

Twenty years of lessons in how to make and sell the best clothing. We have begun the twenty-first. All that we have found out about it, we have put into practice in making up the 2½ acres of clothing that you will look at for our trade; it is the very largest retail clothing stock in the country; worth every cent we ask for it; and we guarantee every article.

More and Better Materials in
More and Better Clothing in Lower and Fairer Prices in
Oak Hall
Than in any other retail clothing house anywhere within reach of American money.

The secret of our great business is only this: Doing our level best to make up the right kind of clothing, and having made it right, then counting the cost, and

SELLING AT THE RIGHT PRICES.

This we have been doing for twenty years; and have clothed over hundreds of thousands,—old and young.

This Spring we Overtop every Past Spring.

The spring has been so backward that we have had ample getting-ready time, and the extraordinary stock of clothing that every man and boy may choose from is without equal in America. The stock is something wonderful.

SOUND AS HONEST WORK CAN MAKE IT.

The best sewing on the best cloths, the best trimmings, the best styles, and the best money's worth that can be put into clothing anywhere. It is a great thing to say, that not another house in the land can do so largely; we make up the clothing in our own well-ordered ways,—knowing all the things that belong to making clothing well,—and they will go direct from us,—the makers,—to you,—the wearers,—not a profit between. That's why OAK HALL has the lowest prices, as well as the best clothing.

During the past ninety days we have, in making up this new spring stock, so improved the patterns, our ways of making, and minor details, that this spring's exhibition of ready-made clothing might be fairly called

READY CUSTOM-MADE CLOTHING.

Being far in advance of any hitherto offered for immediate wear. This applies alike to Men's and Boys' Clothing.

Our Custom Clothing Department improves every year. We make to order from the finest fabrics, and believe we do the best work that can be done.

Orders may be filled with the same promptness and care that would be given to serving you in person.

Extending the compliments of the house, and a cordial invitation to everybody to come and see, and make trial of the 1881 Spring Clothing.
